

Celebrating Galveston! Three of my favorite places...

It is probably my favorite time of year when we get our Island back! My beach walks are so peaceful now and it is much easier to park downtown. Just remember to watch out for kiddos around schools!
Yippee Skippee!

The Bishop's Palace is such an icon destination. Hard to imagine it was once slated for demolition (to make way for a gas station no less!). I'm proud to have been a part of saving this wonderful building for future generations.

Galveston's Own Farmers Market at the Bryan Museum is such a great place to visit for fresh food, cooking lessons, kid's gardening programs and more. Love these guys!

NEW PRICE Downtown Show Stopper!

This is one of the most interesting and creative houses on the Island! The historic John Sealy garage at 908 23rd St has 5,000 SF of commercial space downstairs and a designer loft upstairs. Outside it has a custom courtyard and oversize landscaped lot. It is now $625,000.

EAST & WEST - WE HAVE YOU COVERED!

East End Jewel
1409 Market St

The 1886 W F Breath House is a jewel on Market St with so much to offer a historic house lover. It has been a historic tour participant twice and has 3 bed, 2.5 bath, 7 fireplaces and a pool! It is one of a few examples of the rare Eastern Stick style Victorian homes on the Island.

Gorgeous on the Golf Course 2424 Sydnor Lane

Its all about location! From the east, the home affords spectacular views of Sydnor Bayou and from the west the verdant Galveston golf course. This 3 bedroom 2.5 bath home provides plenty of space for entertaining relaxing and simply living!
