

Be kind, birding tours and Beatles tribute...

I love this campaign! The Family Service Center is encouraging us to undertake random acts of kindness in September by writing a friendly note, buying a coffee for someone or some other small act. Let's all embrace this great celebration of kindness by an organization who does so much!

GINT and the Galveston County Audubon Society have a bunch of great birding events in September that are free to the public. Visit the Audubon website for more about the talks and birding trips!

I'm proud to sponsor the Art of Saving the Sea Turtles benefit at the Bryan Museum on September 30. It's going to be a great night of art, eats and entertainment all for a good cause. Get your tickets here!
