Hand on History, Love is in the Air and Megaliths at ArtWalk!

Hard to believe it is June already! My friends at the Bryan Museum have a fun family festival coming up at the end of the month (June 28). The Hands on Texas History Festival will have a gunsmith, medicine show, live music, re-enactors and much more! Visit the event website.

June is the most popular month for weddings. With this in mind the Hotel Galvez has an annual ceremony for couples wishing to renew their vows on the coast. It is from 10 to 11 on June 8. The group ceremony is free and special packages are available!

Artwalk is back Saturday June 8! Galveston artist Ed Gearke and writer Rosa Morgan are unveiling a new project at Third Coast Gallery on Mechanic St. Called Megaliths it is a collection of paintings and short stories inspired by the giant stone structures from Britain.
