Celebrating Moms, Historic Homes Tour & La Izquierda!

It is Mother's Day this Sunday May 12 and I hope you celebrate the moms in your life. There is plenty of fun things for moms in Galveston including lovely lunches, shopping fun, art, a cooking class at The Kitchen Chick, the GHF Homes Tour and more. Hope you like the photo of my mom, me, and my brothers. She had her hands full with four!

Also on Sunday May 12, I will be House Chair at 1126 Church St the Allan and Lulu Cameron House. It is my 30th year as a volunteer and the GHF Historic Homes Tour is only 45 years old so while I've not been there from the start I've had a good run! Yippee Skippee see you there!

Surf and Music festival La Izquierda is happening rain or shine on Saturday May 11. I'm proud to be a sponsor of this great local event which is organized by my agent Brian Kuhn. The fest raises money for Surfrider the conservation charity. Check out the website for more!

OPEN HOUSES SATURDAY 11 to 1

1827 Ball is a gorgeous home in the East End with many lovely features including an original chandelier in the entrance, walk-thru windows, wood floors and porches from nearly every room. The 1895 Maud J H Moller house is one of the most photographed on the island - make it yours!
