Fun Things to do in Galveston Real & Virtual.....

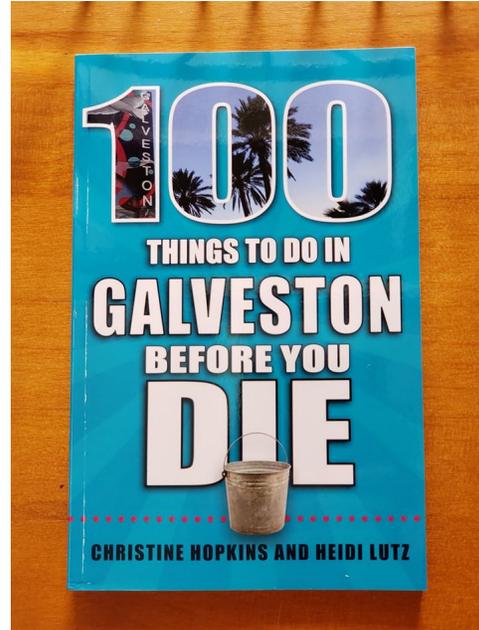

This Saturday May 9 Galveston Historical Foundation is hosting a virtual homes tour from 1pm to 5pm.

My listing at 5115 Ave T is one of four houses on the tour. Designed by John Staub this magnificent 7/6.5 was built in 1938 for William and Mary Moody III.

It is a free event but I would urge you to support it with a donation!

Local authors Christine Hopkins and Heidi Lutz have written a cool book about all the fun things that make Galveston so interesting.

We are honored to be part of this global series of books and I think it'd make a great gift. You can find it at the Galveston Bookshop!
